

Premier Service
Terms and Conditions

Terms and Conditions

1. Introduction

The Romans Premier Service is an additional service available only to those Landlords to whom Romans provide either a letting and rent collection or full management service.

These Terms and Conditions for the Premier Service (the "Premier Service") apply in addition to our Terms and Conditions for lettings and rent collection and full management as set out in the letting instructions between Romans and the Landlord and should therefore be read in conjunction with those terms; definitions used in both are consistent.

As part of the Premier Service, Romans will guarantee certain aspects of their service in the event that a Tenant introduced by Romans defaults in the terms of their Tenancy with the Landlord as expressly described and subject to the limitations set out below in paragraph 3.

2. Premier Service

Romans will provide a Landlord who contracts for the Premier Service with the following services in addition to those services provided as part of Romans' letting and rent collection or full management services.

2.1 Enhanced Applicant Assessment

More diligent enquiry into an applicant Tenant's suitability and ability to fulfil the proposed Tenancy, involving:

- 2.1.1 an in-depth review of applicant Tenant profile by an experienced Romans manager;
- 2.1.2 greater use of consumer credit bureau data where, in Romans' view, it is available and appropriate;
- 2.1.3 an applicant Tenant profile review made against Romans' own "high risk" applicant criteria; and
- 2.1.4 a further applicant Tenant profile review and approval by a Romans' director.

2.2 Enhanced Tenancy Management

Greater pro activity in management, problem solving, dispute resolution and access to expert legal advice and support services in respect of Tenants who are in dispute or default concerning a Tenancy, to include;

- 2.2.1 making continued weekly telephone calls to the Tenant's home and place of work, even after legal process has commenced in order to see if any dispute or misunderstanding can be resolved;
- 2.2.2 producing documentation to commence litigation;
- 2.2.3 instructing Romans' chosen solicitors and managing the legal process to judgement;
- 2.2.4 instructing Romans' chosen solicitors and managing enforcement as appropriate including enforcement of both money orders (attachment of earning etc.) and possession orders (instructing bailiffs);
- 2.2.5 appointing Romans' chosen tracing agents to locate absconded Tenants; and
- 2.2.6 managing any action involving a Tenant's guarantor(s).

3. Guarantee

Subject to paragraphs 5, 6 and 7, in the event that (i) the Tenant is in breach of the Tenancy Agreement resulting in any of the matters referred to in paragraphs 3.1, 3.2 or 3.3 below occurring; and (ii) Romans' failure to perform the enhanced applicant assessment and tenancy management services as described in paragraph 2 above; and (iii) had Romans performed such services the Tenancy Agreement would not have been entered into and accordingly no such breach would have occurred and no loss would have been incurred by the Landlord, then in such circumstances Romans may in its absolute discretion agree to (but shall not be obliged to) compensate the Landlord by remedying the default as follows:

3.1 Rent

Where the Tenant has failed to pay the Rent set out in the Tenancy Agreement (within 30 days of it falling due), then Romans will reimburse this to the Landlord for the remaining period of the then existing Tenancy subject to the limits in 3.4 below.

3.2 Legal Expenses

Where the Tenant has:

- 3.2.1 failed to pay the Rent due under the Tenancy Agreement;
- 3.2.2 failed to vacate the Property in accordance with the Tenancy Agreement;
- 3.2.3 left the Property in disrepair;
- 3.2.4 materially breached the terms of the Tenancy Agreement in a manner that is capable of legal redress; or
- 3.2.5 issued proceedings against the Landlord for a Property or Tenancy related matter, Romans will manage and pay the related legal costs incurred on behalf of the Landlord in prosecuting or defending the proceedings in respect of the above provided that our appointed solicitors shall advise that it is reasonable and thereafter remains reasonable, to do so.

3.3 Alternative Accommodation

Where the Property let to the Tenant is the Landlord's own home (that is, occupied by the Landlord as his sole or principal residence prior to the Tenancy commencing) which the Landlord wishes to reoccupy at the end of the Tenancy but is prevented from so doing because either:

- 3.3.1 the Tenant has failed to leave and give vacant possession; or
- 3.3.2 the Property is unfit for the Landlord to reoccupy because of disrepair caused by the Tenant, Romans will pay the actual reasonable alternative accommodation costs incurred by the Landlord should the Landlord find himself homeless and without accommodation for his use in England or Wales, limited to an amount equal to 3 months' Rent – being the level of rent payable under the last completed tenancy agreement – of the Landlord's Property.

3.4 Guarantee Limits

The compensation payable by Romans to the Landlord under this guarantee is limited in the following ways:

- 3.4.1 the maximum liability in respect of any Tenancy is limited to £40,000
- 3.4.2 compensation payments by Romans in respect of unpaid Rent reduce to an equivalent of 75% of the Rent payable by the Tenant once vacant possession of the Property has been obtained; continued payment of compensation at this reduced level will continue, for a maximum of 2 months, until the letting of the Property to a new Tenant, always provided that the Landlord makes the Property immediately and exclusively available for reletting by Romans, for a minimum period of 6 months, and at a rent achieved under the last Tenancy or at such other rental as Romans consider appropriate to procure a reletting of the Property with a reasonable period
- 3.4.3 in calculating any compensation due under this guarantee any deposit paid by the Tenant and held by Romans (whether as agent for the Landlord or as stakeholder) in respect of the Tenancy will be used by Romans to set against amounts due to the Landlord

before any sums which may be due under this guarantee

4. Fees and Charges

The fee for the Premier Service will be paid monthly by the Landlord, calculated as 3.5% of the monthly Rent plus VAT (4.2% inclusive of VAT) payable as set out in the Tenancy Agreement, and Romans will where possible, collect the fee by deduction from Rent remitted to the Landlord.

Value Added Tax at the prevailing rate will be charged in addition to the fee.

5. Discretion

Romans will also have absolute discretion in;

- the selection and appointment of any solicitors, bailiffs and other agents engaged under the Premier Service.
- deciding whether to continue to offer the Premier Service beyond the original Tenancy end date if the Tenant is or has been in default of the terms of the Tenancy, but the Landlord wishes to extend the Tenancy or otherwise allow the Tenant to remain in occupation.

6. Conditions

- 6.1 It is a term of the Premier Service that Romans shall not be liable in respect of any obligation under it (including the guarantee) unless and only to the extent that the Landlord has fully complied with the terms and conditions of the Tenancy Agreement and any other agreement whatsoever made in respect of the Tenancy or the Tenancy Agreement (including the terms and conditions for lettings and rent collection and full management as set out in the letting instructions between Romans and the Landlord and the terms of this Premier Service contained in this form)
- 6.2 Romans or the Landlord may cancel the Premier Service at any time by sending 30 days written notice to each other. The Landlord may not give such notice to terminate this agreement during the first 30 days of any letting of the landlord's property in the event that the Landlord gives such notice to cancel the Premier Service then Romans will have no further obligation in respect of the guarantee set out in clause 3 in respect of any events or matters whether or not they occurred before or after the cancellation of the Premier Service.
- 6.3 The Landlord shall notify Romans immediately of any circumstance which might reasonably lead to Romans being potentially responsible for making a guarantee payment under the terms of paragraph 3.
- 6.4 When presenting a claim the Landlord must give Romans full written details of the incident and provide such proof, supporting evidence and other information as Romans may reasonably request. In the event of a dilapidation claim, the Landlord must provide a full quantified and supported claim no later than 30 days from the date the claim first arose or, if later, the date the Landlord became aware of the circumstances giving rise to the claim.
- 6.5 The Landlord will not interfere with or prejudice Romans' Rent Arrears procedures.
- 6.6 Romans shall make payment under this service in respect of legal expenses provided that there are, in

Romans' view, reasonable prospects for the recovery of damages or other remedy or for a successful defence. Romans may discontinue the payment of legal expenses to the Landlord if during the course of any claim Romans considers that such prospects of success no longer exist. If Romans either refuses to accept or discontinues a claim it shall inform the Landlord the reasons for so doing.

- 6.7 The Landlord agrees to co-operate fully with Romans and the appointed solicitor on all matters arising out of or in connection with any incident relating to this Premier Service. Further, the Landlord agrees that the appointed solicitor may act in the name of and on behalf of the Landlord. Romans reserves the right to investigate the circumstances of any incident giving rise to a requirement for Romans to make payment under this service and to attempt to obtain settlement of any matter prior to litigation.
- 6.8 Control and direction of any litigation conducted in connection with the Premier Service shall rest solely with Romans. The Landlord's legal expenses will only be covered provided these are incurred with Romans' appointed solicitors; expert witness costs will only be covered provided Romans has given prior written approval to their appointment. The Landlord must inform Romans immediately in writing of any offer or payment into court made with a view to settling a claim. No agreement to settle a claim relating to a Tenant may be made without the appointed solicitor's approval. If an offer or payment into court is not accepted by the Landlord but the amount thereof is equal to or in excess of the total amount eventually recovered by him then Romans shall have no liability in respect of any further legal costs and expenses unless upon being notified of the offer or payment into court Romans agrees to the continuation of any proceedings. If the outcome of any proceedings is not in the Landlord's favour then no appeal or further proceedings will be covered by the Premier Service unless agreed to in writing in advance by Romans and at whose sole discretion agreement rests.
- 6.9 If a Landlord shall make any statement recklessly or knowing this statement to be false or fraudulent in any way then the Landlord shall forfeit the right to any payment by Romans under this Premier Service and repay any payments already made by Romans. All accounts for arrears of rental income, legal expenses or alternative accommodation expenses must be submitted to Romans monthly. Romans shall be entitled to recover any Value Added Tax.
- 6.10 The Landlord shall at Romans' request and expense take every available step to recover from third parties legal costs and expenses and other liquidated costs paid by Romans under this Premier Service and all recoveries from the deposit must be paid to Romans. Romans has the right in the first instance to all recoveries made resulting from actions taken and payment made pursuant to this Premier Service; Romans may utilise such recoveries in part or in whole. Recoveries shall include any balance of the Tenant's deposit remaining after settlement of a valid dilapidation claim. If the Landlord becomes or is deemed to become insolvent during the course of any claim or legal proceedings to which has given support under this Premier Service then Romans reserves the right to withdraw that support immediately and thereafter, none of the benefits to which the Landlord would otherwise be entitled to pursuant to the Premier Service shall continue.

- 6.11 In the event of a payment of compensation by Romans to the Landlord under clause 3.1, limited as set out in 3.4.2, it is a condition that the Landlord must accept a new tenancy of the Property at a rent equivalent to at least 85% of the monthly Rent payable under the last Tenancy.
